Certain moments are to be cherished...

and we are extremely lucky to be able to share our home with you, in a truly idyllic country setting.

The Domaine de la Pommeraye is a former farm that was once part of the nearby and eponymous Château:

the choice of light-coloured stone for its construction, the noblest in the region, its monumental buildings... each detail within this exceptional example of the region's finest farms reminds us how important it was to honour the lord of the manor. Today, its new vocation is to welcome you for a few hours or a few days, and to offer you a choice of relaxing and invigorating packages, concocted so you can truly escape, for a time away from time...

So come and let yourself go at the spa, embark on our genuine Sensory Journeys, succumb to the charm of our guest rooms and suites, naturally equipped with all the modern comforts (but don't expect to find a TV here!), or relish in some local produce over a table d'hôte meal with us: because a good meal, absorbing exchange and spontaneous laughter are all equally beneficial!

We are happy to be your hosts and your guides, so that, at every instant, you can concentrate on...

Silence, Nature... And You!

Yann & Hervé
